

Tonic After Typhoid

Mrs. Evelyn B. Barnard, of Kingston, N. Y., tells how Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey transformed her from weakness into strength after a terrible nine weeks' siege of typhoid fever. She regards this medicine as a life saver for her. The following are her own words:

"I regard Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a life-saver for me. I had been down nine weeks in the City Hospital with the terrible typhoid fever. When I was discharged of course I was very weak and could hardly stand on my feet. I had read so much of your medicine and its cures that I resolved to give it a fair trial. I took three bottles on the first, in two weeks I was able to walk half a mile without tiring, and I can really and truly say it saved me from a relapse. I will keep it in the home, as it is the only good medicine to have around as a preventative in any kind of sickness. I hope you will publish this, that others may know where to find a medicine that really has such merits. Yours very truly, Mrs. EVELYN B. BARNARD, Station R. Box 97, Kingston, N. Y."

is the greatest strength builder and tonic stimulant known to medicine. It attacks the seat of the disease, drives out the germs and rebuilds the weakened tissues, in a gradual, healthy, natural manner. It is an absolute cure and preventive of consumption, pneumonia, grip, bronchitis, coughs, colds, malaria, low fevers and all wasting, weakened, diseased conditions, if taken in time.

It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickle children. It strengthens and sustains the system, is a promoter of health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION—When you ask your Druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is an absolutely pure malted barley whiskey and is sold in wooden bottles only—never in bulk. Look for the trademark, the "Duffy" character on the label and make sure the seal is unbroken. Gone Forever

Two years ago an Allen County, Kansas, farmer put his initials on a dollar bill. The next day he went to the nearest town and spent it with a merchant. Before the year was out he got the dollar back. Four times in six years the dollar came back to him for produce, and three times he heard of it in the pockets of his neighbors. The last time he got it back was four years ago. It is sent to a mail order house. He has never seen that dollar since, and never will. That dollar bill will never pay any more school or road tax for him, will never build or brighten any of the homes of the community. He is entirely out of the usefulness to himself and his neighbors.

MORAL: Trade at your home hardware store, where your dollar buys most anyway, and where you may get it back again.

Marathon Race Good Ball Game Rules And Notions At Waianae Sunday

The Marathon rules, which came to hand yesterday, were eagerly read by all who could get near them. The part which refers to medical aid, etc., was much discussed, and generally it was read to mean that massaging was allowed. First medical aid was sure to be applied to cramps, and that is about the only trouble the runners will have—except that tired feeling.

The sections of the rules which interest local men are as follows: "An runner who impedes the progress of another competitor will be disqualified. In the same way, any runner who shall have attempted to shorten the route, by cutting across or, by using any other means of locomotion, will be disqualified."

The place of each competitor is determined by lots. If the runners are too numerous, two or more rows, according to requirements will be formed at the start.

Each runner is entitled to be followed by a person carrying refreshments or one commissioned to render him just medical aid during the course of the race. This person may under no circumstances precede the runner, and the latter is immediately disqualified should the follower have impeded the progress of a competitor.

This is all plain sailing, and establishing the fact that attendants may rub down their charges whenever they please.

In the San Francisco Call's description of the Marathon Derby, which was won by St. Yves, it is stated that Lombard stepped off the track for four minutes, and was rubbed down by his trainers. It appears from this incident that massaging, etc., is allowed, but as a man is losing valuable time while being rubbed down, it is not probable that many men will avail themselves of the privilege.

The runners have all been numbered for the big race on Sunday, and several further details have been fixed up. John Anderson will be an announcer, and will wield the big megaphone so that everyone can hear what is doing. Charles Crane has been appointed timekeeper in place of Smith, who finds he cannot officiate in that capacity.

The rope which will enclose the track is to be put into position tomorrow, and several small patches of bad track are to be fixed up. Everything else is in good order and it only needs fine weather to make the day a memorable one.

Most of the runners are thoroughly wound up now, and fit to run for a Kingdom. V. Gomez is running in fine style and is one of those who will surely finish. Downey will also run well in the race and lots of people think that he will prove to be the ultimate winner. Frank Scharsch may be relied upon to put up a great run, and it would surprise no one to see him win. Conny Hayes runs in fine style and cuts out the laps in fast time. It would be a strange coincidence if a Marathon winner in Hawaii was of the same name as the famous mainland runner.

"Marathon" Jackson is in fine fettle, and feels confident that he can beat all comers over the long course. Jackson declares that if any runner can do the distance in 3 hours 15 minutes, that runner will win. This means that "Jack" knows he can cut out the race in a little more time than that, and this information leads one to believe that the first Marathon winner can cover the distance in less than three and a half hours. And that is going some considering our semi-tropical climate. The following are the entries and numbers:

1, J. H. Kanohi; 2, Hoonia Mana; 3, Kaula Kaula; 4, Corporal Merrick, 5th Cavalry; 5, Nigel E. G. Jackson; 6, Conny Hayes; 7, Frank Mariposa; 8, Antonio Knott; 9, David Hakuole; 10, Frank Scharsch; 11, Wm. Forrest; 12, H. E. Diehl; 13, H. Grace; 14, Frank Enos; 15, Vincent Gomez; 16, George Kahaula; 17, T. Downey; 18, Dal Pahay; 19, Wm. Kanahani; 20, Philip Contrades; 21, H. M. Ayres; 22, J. Honan; 23, J. M. Camara; 24, James Kaopulima; 25, C. K. Charlie; 26, J. Crane; 27, E. Olsen; 28, L. B. Barnard; 29, John Kepa; 30, George Kanae; 31, Joe Lukela; 32, Albert Arida; 33, George Kanae.

The unbeaten Ewa baseball team will try conclusions with Waianae on Sunday next. The game will be played on the Waianae diamond, and great preparations are being made by the Ewa bunch to celebrate in style the anticipated victory. Baseball Magnate W. Leslie West feels confident that his boys can repeat the licking they gave the Waianae crowd last Sunday, and, on the other hand, the way-back bunch are determined to avenge their defeat or know the reason why.

A special car has been engaged by the Ewa players and rooters, and some sixty or seventy fans will make the trip by the O. R. & L. train to Waianae. The game which will be umpired by Oom Burns, promises to stir up enough excitement to keep the mill going for a week without fuel.

Mr. West, who is one of the keenest of baseball fans, and who started the Plantation Baseball League, would simply die of heart failure if his boys went down in defeat. It was mainly owing to his efforts and expert advice that the Ewas pulled themselves together in the sixth inning last Sunday and made the winning run.

The Waianae band will play selections during the match and Bandmaster Mervin Simpson has composed a ditty to be sung after the slaughter of the innocent Ewas. The song starts with "They Got It In the Neck—Wow!" and goes on to relate in advance what happened to the visitors from Ewa. Oh, yes; there is going to be a hot time on Sunday at Waianae.

Hawailian Gun Club Holds Shoot

The Hawaiian Gun Club held its weekly challenge shoot at the Kakaako traps on Wednesday afternoon. The match, which was at unknown angles, was won after a close and exciting contest by J. W. Harvey. E. I. Spalding and W. E. Wall tied with Harvey in the first shoot, all three men getting eighteen birds. In the shoot-off Harvey got 9 out of 10, and Spalding 9 out of 12; Wall only accounted for eight birds out of eleven, and dropped out at this stage.

Harvey and Spalding decided to shoot on for the "leg-in" for the trophy, and the former, dropping 9 out of 10, was declared the winner. These weekly shoots are held every Wednesday, and great interest is shown in the matches. The general public is cordially invited to attend the regular shoots of the Club, and the trip certainly well repays one, for most of the members are expert gunners.

NEWS NOTES FROM KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOLS

There was a large crowd of town folks out to see the Kamehameha Cadets go through a dress parade drill on Sunday afternoon. The Cadets are not in first-class shape yet as regards handling the guns, but with a few more weeks of practice the boys hope to be ready to give an exhibition drill.

The Senior Class of the Kamehameha School will give a minstrel performance on Saturday evening in the school hall. The boys have been rehearsing during the last two weeks and expect to make a good showing on Saturday evening. Tickets are on sale at the school office, 50c and 25c each.

There was a practice baseball game between the first and second teams of Kamehameha School on the school grounds Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The baseball diamond has just been put in good shape ready for the baseball series.

AMUSEMENTS

POLLARD'S IN "CHECKERS"

The Opera House was well peopled last night with a mighty enthusiastic aggregation of theater-goers. "Checkers" made a great hit. Alfred Goulding was there with his funny lines so cleverly and so smoothly that everybody had to laugh.

Alf. Goulding and Teddie McNamara had all the work. Goulding took the part of Checkers, the youth with sporting proclivities and Teddie was the tough tout with a bee in his bonnet to hand everybody a different steer and so make a hit somewhere down the line.

The great scene in the play was when Checkers has wagered the fifty-dollar gold piece given to him as a souvenir by the girl of his heart, on an outsider at odds of 100 to 1. The girl appears on the scene just as the horses are leaving the starting post. There is a little embracing and then her father drags her away. If Remora, the horse that Checkers has bet on, wins the race, he will have the necessary five thousand dollars without which her father will not consent to his marriage with his daughter.

The old man drags his daughter away and then Checkers, with his back to the race-track, not daring to look to see which horse is ahead, commences to pull for the pony that carries his wad. Goulding surpasses himself in this scene. He throws all repression to the winds and yells like a big colored man shooting craps and calling for his number to turn up.

Many are booked for the performance tomorrow. Next week there will be vaudeville at the Opera House. This will be on Monday night and on Wednesday matinee and evening. Next Thursday they will open with "Fun on the Bristol," an excellent vehicle for the best songs and dances that these clever young actors have in their repertoire.

"BEACON LIGHTS" AT THE ORPHEUM

"Beacon Lights," the play which the Elforders will produce at the Orpheum tonight, is possessed of much literary merit, and is filled with numerous situations of sufficiently striking nature to keep the interest of the audience up to the highest pitch from the first rise to the final fall of the curtain. Besides this, the play seems to have a special adaptation to the peculiar talents of the Elforders. The story of the play deals with the attempted stealing of a very valuable mine from a widow and her boy, but which is frustrated by an honest miner and an Army captain. The action takes place in New Mexico on the mainland and is in five strong and interesting acts which are full of comedy and laughable climaxes. One of the principal scenes is that of the smugglers' retreat and the thrilling rescue by a detachment of the United States soldiers. This act will be participated in by the regulars. New and pleasing specialties will be given by the clever Osborn children.

At the matinee tomorrow afternoon by request the comedy drama "Pals." Box office open daily, except Sunday from 10 o'clock for the sale of seats.

MANY DOCTORS PRESCRIBE

proprietary medicines under a Latin name, charging for the written prescription three times the cost of the medicine, and do not hesitate to condemn that self-same medicine if it is advertised or mentioned by the public. There are, however, many honest doctors who do not hesitate to openly recommend and prescribe such standard remedies as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
